Prepare to be transported to the vibrant and witty world of Dorothy Parker with Under The Table: The Dorothy Parker Cocktail Guide. This charming book is a delightful fusion of literature and mixology, featuring a collection of cocktails inspired by the iconic author's life and writings.

A Literary Cocktail Hour with Dorothy Parker

Dorothy Parker, the celebrated writer and wit of the Algonquin Round Table, was renowned for her sharp tongue, keen observations, and love of a good cocktail. Under The Table captures the essence of Parker's spirit and literary legacy through a curated collection of cocktails that pay homage to her iconic persona and works.

Each cocktail in this guide is meticulously crafted to reflect Parker's personality and literary themes. From the "Stinger," inspired by her famous Algonquin Round Table gathering, to the "Ramos Gin Fizz," a nod to her love of the New York City social scene, these cocktails embody the wit, sophistication, and wry humor that made Parker one of the most beloved literary figures of the 20th century.

Sip and Savor Literary Delights

Under The Table is not just a cocktail guide; it's a literary treasure that will appeal to both cocktail enthusiasts and literature lovers. Each cocktail recipe is accompanied by a captivating anecdote, quote, or excerpt from Parker's writings, providing a glimpse into her brilliant mind and the world she inhabited.

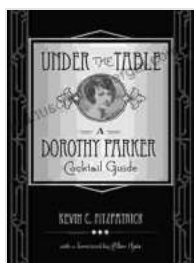

Whether you're a seasoned mixologist or a casual cocktail connoisseur, you'll find inspiration and delight in this unique guide. The recipes are easy to follow, allowing you to recreate the magic of Dorothy Parker's era in the comfort of your own home.
